

Steve Siler

Founder & Director – Music for the Soul

Steve Siler is a songwriter and producer. For 11 years he served as a writer in the Christian music industry, during which time he has had more than 400 of his songs recorded in the Christian market by such artists as Point of Grace, Avalon, Anointed, Clay Crosse, The Martins, Aaron Jeffrey, Greg Long, Be Be Winans, Bob Carlisle, Sandi Patty, Scott Krippayne, Tammy Trent and Larnelle Harris, among others.

Nominated for four Dove Awards, Siler won the award in 2000 for Inspirational Song of the Year with "I Will Follow Christ." His best known songs are "Circle of Friends" and "Not Too Far From Here." He has had nine #1 CCM songs and more than 40 "Top 10" singles.

Siler has had songs recorded by pop artists, such as Kenny Loggins, Smokey Robinson, Patti Labelle and Patti Austin. His songs have landed in feature films and on all four of the major television networks.

Prior to his work in songwriting, Siler worked in marketing for A & M Records in Los Angeles.

Since becoming director of Music for the Soul (www.musicforthesoul.com), Siler has provided music for the opening ceremony of the National Special Olympics, The Starkey Foundation and Lutheran Vespers, as well as the TV theme for Pure Passion.

His first book, "The Praise & Worship Devotional," was published by Tyndale House in February 2004.
